Regulations respecting Foreign Orders.

1. No subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the next of kin or others entitled, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the "London Gazette" and the "Army List," and is also to be seen, at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the date and place of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a justice of the peace. The applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore it will facilitate the applicant's inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared. Dated this 30th day of April, 1871.

By Order of the said Principal Secretary,

EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

CL. 96.—Distribution of Smart Money.

1. The Secretary of State has decided that the proportion of smart money, payable under Article 516 of the Pay Warrant of 27th December, 1870, to the recruiting party, includes a sum of 4s. 9d. to which the bringer of the recruit is entitled; and that amount will accordingly in future be paid to the bringer.

2. It is to be clearly understood that this order has no retrospective effect.

CL. 97.—Working Pay for Cleaning and Painting Ordnance.

1. Master gunners are not entitled to working pay while superintending working parties employed in cleaning, painting or lacquering Ordnance, or on duties appertaining to Artillery soldiers; such superintendence being part of their ordinary duty.

2. The rates of working pay mentioned in paragraph 6, of Clause 81, Army Circulars, 1868, will be noted as cancelled, they having been superseded by the Regulations contained in Articles 613, 664 and 665 of the Pay Warrant of 27th December, 1870.

CL. 98.—Pay &c., of Medical and Veterinary Officers, not attached to Regiments.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular, 14th June, 1871.)

1. The pay and allowances of medical officers not attached to regiments, and staff veterinary surgeons, will be issued, like that of all staff officers, by the control paymasters of the districts in which they are serving, and not through any other channel.

2. At home, staff medical officers who are not attached to any district will draw their pay and allowances from the control paymaster in London.

3. Clause 22, Army Circulars, 1871, is hereby cancelled.

3. When completed, these returns will be countersigned by the commanding officer, and returned to the paymaster, who will attach them as vouchers to his quarterly pay list.

4. Clause 69, Army Circulars, 1870, is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 100.—Ration Allowance to Soldiers Travelling Coastwise.

1. A soldier proceeding coastwise by steamer (when there is no contract for providing him with rations), will, if the estimated period of the voyage exceed eight hours, be granted an allowance of 10d. to provide himself with food upon the voyage.

2. If the estimated length of the voyage exceed 24 hours, a second allowance of 10d., or, if it exceed 48 hours, a third allowance of the same amount may be issued.

3. These allowances are irrespective of the man's being billeted at the termination of the voyage; and will be issued in advance by the paymaster who issues the passage warrants.

4. No shore ration will be drawn for the soldier for the day on which he embarks for any passage which will entitle him to one or more allowances of 10d. under the foregoing Regulations.

Cl. 101.—Allowance for Cleaning Offices.

Allowances for cleaning staff and departmental offices, under Clause 1, Army Circulars, 1867, are now payable by control paymasters, and will be charged to "Contingent Expenses" of Control Service Vote (10).

7. Add to Article 219, page 193, "The equipment accounts of the Army Service Corps will be rendered in a company form through the staff officer of the corps."

CI. 108.—Stores for Small-arm Ammunition Cart.

2. Bands will no longer be supplied, as it is considered that scabbards so far worn as to require new bands should be condemned.

3. Mouth pieces and sputcheons will no longer be supplied separately, but mouth pieces with the sputcheon strongly attached will be furnished. In making requisitions for these articles, it will be necessary to state whether they are required for small or large sized scabbards.

4. The following alterations will be made at page 136, Table III., of the Equipment Regulations, 1870:—

CL. 110.—Horse Logs—Instructions as to Supply of.

1. Horse logs will no longer be classed as equipment; and they will accordingly be removed from pages 151, 152, 153, and 155 of the Equipment Regulations, 1870.

2. They will, on receipt of this order, be transferred by regular voucher from the equipment ledger of each corps, to the custody of the Control Department, and be held on inventory as barrack stores.

3. As it is possible that in some billets on the line of march, logs may be required, it will be the duty of each commanding officer to see that prior to leaving the station he obtains such a number of logs as he may consider necessary, which will be carried on the horses, and delivered into store on arrival at his destination.

4. The commissary in charge of barrack stores at the place from which the corps is proceeding, will transfer to the commissary of barrack stores at the new station the number of logs so to be handed over; any deficient being paid for.

CL. 111.—Regimental Equipment Ledgers.

1. The regimental equipment ledgers of the following corps, namely, staff of brigades of Royal Artillery, batteries of Royal Artillery, troops and companies of Royal Engineers, regiments of Cavalry and Infantry, and companies of transport and supply branches of the Army Service Corps, will, within one month after the 31st December in each year, be forwarded, with the vouchers in support, to the control station on which each corps is dependent for its supplies. See Equipment Regulations, 1870, Articles 219 (page 198).

2. In the event of any delay, the Controller, upon whom the corps is dependent, will apply to the officer in command for the accounts, and, if necessary, will report the circumstance to the local authority under whom the corps is serving.

3. At home, on receipt of the ledgers and accounts, the Controller will cause the same to be cursorily examined, to see that the documents in support are complete, and will forward the same to the Controller, Royal Arsenal.

4. Abroad, the ledgers will be gone over with a view of settling questions likely to arise, and so prevent lengthened correspondence, but not with any view to final audit, which will be performed at the War Office, under the orders of the Surveyor General. When complete, the ledgers will be sent to the Controller, Royal Arsenal.

5. The store accounts of officers commanding Royal Artillery districts will be rendered to the Surveyor General of the Ordnance as heretofore, under Clause 8, Army Circulars, 1871.

CL. 112.—Clothing Returns.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular, on 13th June, 1871.)

1. Officers commanding corps, regiments, or depôts from which drafts have been sent to India between the 1st April, 1870, and 31st March, 1871, are requested to forward the following returns with as little delay as possible, viz.:—

To the Director of Clothing, Grosvenor Road, London, S. W. A nominal roll of each draft, showing the corps, battery or regiment to which the men belonged; the name of the troop ship in which the draft embarked, and date of sailing; also a detail of every article of clothing, including the free issue of American drill suits and covers for forage caps, taken out by each man, and the date of issue.

To the Controller, Royal Arsenal, Woolwich. A return, showing the number of haversacks in possession of the draft, and the date of issue of the same; the name of the troop ship, and the date and place of embarkation.

2. In the case of drafts proceeding to India subsequent to 31st March, 1871, the returns above referred to will be furnished in each instance immediately after the embarkation.

The remainder of the articles, when practicable, will be obtained from the regimental stores of a corps at the station.

3. It is to be clearly understood that this regulation is not to have a retrospective effect.

G.O. 46.—Examination of Candidates for Appointment to the Control Department.

(Specially issued, 2nd June, 1871.)

I. An examination for admission to the supply and transport sub-department of the Control Department will be held in London, under the director general of military education, on the 20th inst.

II. Subaltern officers in the Army, not exceeding twenty-five years of age, who are recommended by their commanding officers, and gentlemen upon the list of the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief who have passed for commissions, will be allowed to compete.

III. There will be twenty appointments made if there be a sufficient number of eligible candidates. The successful candidates will be appointed to the department on probation as acting assistant commissaries. At the end of a year's probation they will, if reported competent in all respects, be permanently appointed, and receive commissions as assistant commissaries.

IV. Applications for permission to attend at the examination should be addressed, not later than 15th inst., to the military secretary. Further instructions will be given hereafter as to the place of examination.

V. The following is the scheme of examination which candidates will be required to pass:—

OBLIGATORY SUBJECTS.

					Maximum of Marks.
English , writing from dictation, and composition	...	...	...	...	1000
Arithmetic ...	...	...	...	...	1000
One foreign language ...	...	...	...	...	1000

One third of the maximum of marks in each obligatory subject is required for qualification.

VOLUNTARY SUBJECTS.

				Maximum of Marks.
Geography , especially in reference to the population, commercial productions, resources, and communications of countries	...	...	...	1000
Modern history , commencing with the year 1789	...	...	...	1000
Additional foreign languages , each ...	...	...	...	1000
Euclid (first three books) and Algebra ...	...	...	...	1000

GEN. ORDERS—continued.

VI. A candidate may take up one or all of the voluntary subjects.

VII. In each voluntary subject 125 will be deducted from the total number of marks gained by a candidate, and the remainder only allowed to count.

VIII. Officers in their applications should state the voluntary subjects they wish to take up; and also the foreign language in which they desire to be examined as an obligatory subject.

G.O. 47.—Recruiting.

(Specially issued, 6th June, 1871.)

I. Until further orders the standard for recruits for the Infantry is to be 5 feet 5 inches, and upwards.

II. The memorandum addressed to commanding officers of regiments on the 3rd August, 1870, is cancelled.

G.O. 48.—National Rifle Association—Army Prizes.

(Specially issued, 16th June, 1871.)

I. The accompanying memoranda,* showing the conditions of competition for the Army Prizes and Challenge Cup, given by the National Rifle Association, to be shot for at the ensuing Wimbledon meeting, are published for general information.

II. Two competitors are allowed to be furnished by each regiment of Cavalry or battalion of Infantry at home, and by each depôt of those on foreign service,—with a like number for every 600 men of the corps of Royal Engineers;—and commanding officers will transmit one of the accompanying "Forms of Entry" O., properly filled up, to the Adjutant General, and another to the Secretary to the National Rifle Association, not later than 1st proximo, holding the men in readiness to proceed to Wimbledon according to arrangements to be made by the Quarter Master General, under charge of officers to be hereafter named for duty with them.

III. The men are to be fully equipped in every respect, and special care must be taken in selecting men for this honourable duty, that preference is given, not only to those who are good shots, but also to such as are of good character and steady habits, and who will be likely in every respect to do credit to their corps while absent therefrom.

IV. The competition will be with 3-groove long Snider rifles, which, if necessary, can be obtained by Cavalry regiments on loan from the National Rifle Association, on terms which may be ascertained from the Secretary.

V. As the National Rifle Association has decided that Volunteers competing for prizes may, at distances beyond 200 yards, fire "in any position," the same relaxation of the Hythe rules will be allowed to the regular troops competing for the Army Challenge Cup prizes at Wimbledon.

VI. The commanding officer of the battalion which gives the winner in the second stage, will be held by the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief responsible for the safe custody of the "Challenge Cup," and for its return to the Secretary to the National Rifle Association whenever it may be required.

VII. The names of the winners of prizes will be published in General Orders.

G.O. 49.—Courts Martial.

With reference to G.O. 60 of 1869, courts martial in receiving evidence of all former entries of drunkenness against a prisoner, will not, in future, be restricted to the regimental default book, but may accept as evidence the company, battery, or other default book, as directed in the 78th Article of War.

G.O. 50.—Books.

The "Manual of Field Fortification, &c., 1871," is to be included in the list of books recommended to the Army in paragraph 285 of "The Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army."

Each regiment will be supplied with a copy, which should be kept in the ante-room of the officers' mess, so as to be always available for reference.

G.O. 51.—Staff College—Officers' Servants.

I. The ruling in paragraph 412 of "The Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army," disallowing the retention of regimental servants by officers studying at the Staff College, is not to be extended to officers, who, having passed the final examination, are subsequently attached to either Cavalry, Infantry, or Artillery, or to the staff of a general officer, for the purpose of instruction.

* Transmitted with special issue.

II. In such a case a route will be furnished for the servant both in going from, and in returning to, his regiment or dépôt; but the public is not to be put to the expense of replacing him by another man, should he be dismissed for any reason.

III. In the event of an officer not wishing to take a servant from his own corps, the officer commanding the regiment or battery to which he is temporarily attached will detail a soldier from it to attend upon him.

G.O. 52.—Examinations for Promotion.

In carrying out the instructions contained in section 4 of the Queen's Regulations upon the subject of examining officers of Cavalry and Infantry for promotion, the following rules are to be observed:—

I. The reports from each regiment are to be forwarded to the Adjutant General with a separate covering letter from the general or other officer commanding the district or station.

II. The proceedings of the board are to be made out on the W. O. Form, No. 263, the names of the officers examined are to be inserted in the heading, and the concurrence (or otherwise) of the general officer, in the opinion of the examining board, is to be entered after the signatures of the officers composing it.

III. The examination papers of the officers themselves are to be made out on half-sheets of foolscap paper of uniform size, neatly attached together at the upper left-hand corner, folded lengthwise, and each set docketed at the back with the regiment, rank, and name of the officer examined, and each sheet is to be signed by him. The questions as well as the answers to be in the officer's own handwriting.

IV. For the examinations of cornets and ensigns, there will be, in addition to whatever verbal questions the board may consider it advisable to ask, 100 written questions, divided amongst the subjects detailed in paragraphs 159 and 160 of "The Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army," in the following proportions:—
